2. Names of large towns or well-known places are not acceptable, nor any name covering a large area to which several other breeders might have an equally good claim.
3. Herd names can only be made of one or two words. If two words are chosen, only one more word can be added to name any calf, as calves' names cannot contain three words and a numeral.
4. In the case of a Polled Hereford Herd name, the prefix will be immediately followed by a figure 1, and in the case of British Polled herd names, the prefix will be immediately followed by a figure 3.
5. A herd name cannot be registered until the registration fee is received.
6. It is advisable to submit alternative names when completing the Herd Name form, although the first choice will be registered whenever possible.
