- Entry fees;
 - Entry fee for both Premier sales is €50 for all bulls and heifers with no refund given following inspections.
 - Entry fee for Nenagh and Kilmallock is €40.
- It will be mandatory to enter bulls into the shows at both Premier sales.
- There will be a minimum opening bid set at €2,000 for the Premier Sales and €1800 for all other sales.
- For Spring Premier sale only – exhibitors are invited to submit videos of bulls & heifers for sale at the Premier Spring sale, to be showcased on the IHBS website & social media platforms. The society will subsidise towards the cost of professional videos. Each breeder must organise a photographer themselves and the photographer will then invoice the society in full. The cost of entry to the premier sales, if a professional video is sought, will be €110. Breeders are also welcome to submit home made videos or no video at all.
- Conditions for 'special' sales (dispersal, production etc.) –
 - For Society hosted sales, the sale name must be passed by the IHBS Council sub-committee in advance of any advertising on the breeder's part.
 - For Society hosted sales; IHBS will organise the mart, auctioneer (who must be the society appointed auctioneer), advertising & catalogues in return for half of the 5% commission (mart will require the other half to hold the sale) and the breeder must cover the cost of external advertising i.e. IFJ, catalogues and the auctioneer.
